

For Sinclair to force it's affiliates to broadcast over the public airwaves what amounts to a free hour and a half campaign commercial is not just unfair to the democratic process but also an abuse of the public trust.

When large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them.

Thank you for your time.
